Ferrum College Choir slated

The Ferrum College Concert Choir will present a concert at Memorial United Methodist Church on Sunday, April 20 at 7 p.m. The public is invited to attend. The church will have a covered dish supper at 5:30 p.m.

The 45-member choir performs a variety of choral literature from all of the major periods of music history as well as contemporary literature for mixed chorus.

Also performing with the group will be The Troubadours, an 11-member male ensemble, and The New Ferrum Singers and Handbell Ringers, an 11-member mixed ensemble. The Troubadours have a varied musical repertoire including spiritual, contemporary and barber shop music. The New Ferrum Singers perform secular and sacred music.

Ferrum's Concert Choir, in addition to regular on-campus performances, travel throughout Virginia and adjacent states appearing before churches, schools and community groups. In March the Choir will tour Virginia and North Carolina. Twenty selected members of the Concert Choir will sing with an intercollegiate choir performing with the Richmond Symphony in April.

Conductor of the Concert Choir is Ms. Gina Evans, instructor of music. The group is accompanied by Dr. Gary Evans, assistant professor of music.

Ferrum College is a co-educational United Methodist related institution. More than 1,500 resident students are enrolled in the college during the 1979-80 academic year. Ferrum is located 35 miles southwest of Roanoke and 25 miles northwest of Martinsville, Virginia.

Abernathy certified

Marine Pvt. Donald H. Abernathy, son of Cloud and Jean Abernathy of P.O. Box 411, Appomattox, Va., has completed a Basic Engineer Equipment Mechanic Course.

During the ten-week course at the Marine Corps Engineer School, Camp Lejeune, N.C., trainees studied the inspection, maintenance and repair of engineering and earth moving equipment used by the Marine Corps. They received instruction on gasoline and diesel engine troubleshooting, hydraulic, clutch and brake systems, plus related repair shop safety measures.

Murdock advances

Second Lieutenant Arnethia B. Murdock, daughter of Mrs. Ada H. Murdock of Route 3, Lynchburg, graduated Feb. 29 from the Basic Immaterial Officers Candidate Course, Class 1-80.

The 14-week training course was conducted at the U.S. Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia.

She was commissioned as an officer in the U.S. Army Reserves.

Second Lieutenant Murdock joined the Army in 1977 and earned the rank of Specialist 4 prior to her attending the officer's candidate school in November 1979.

She is presently attending the Basic Officer Course at the U.S. Army Quartermaster School in Fort Lee, Virginia.

Carter heads up Republican committee

Robert W. Carter, an Appomattox attorney, has been named local campaign coordinator for the Ronald Reagan for President of the United States Committee.

Also named to the advisory committee from Appomattox are Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Powell, Mr. Fred Smith, Betsy Smith, Mr. and Mrs. R. Clayton Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moon, Mr. Doug Webb, and Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Fratrick.

Those desiring to make contributions to the Virginia Reagan for President Committee may mail their contributions directly to the Virginia Reagan for President Committee, 106 E. Eighth Street, Richmond, Va. 23219.

Sgt. Grover P. Beasley

Beasley honored

Sgt. Grover P. Beasley, III (Tye) was officially notified on March 24, by Colonel John M. Franklin, deputy commander for resource management at Sheppard Air Force Base, Texas, that he has been selected to attend Officers Training School at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

Sgt. Beasley has not yet received an official class start date, but expects an approximate date of August or September.

In addition to his acceptance at Officers Training School, Sgt. Beasley has completed requirements for an Associate of Applied Service Degree in Mid-Management with Vernon Regional Junior College and will complete requirements for his Bachelor of Science in Occupation Education (Business Administration) with Wayland Baptist College in May. He has also received an Associate of Applied Science Degree in Transportation with the Community College of the Air Force.

Sgt. Beasley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover P. Beasley, Jr. of Appomattox.

To celebrate anniversary

The 27th anniversary of the Pastor, Rev. J. P. Rose of Springfield Baptist Church in Appomattox County, will be celebrated Sunday (April 20) at 3 p.m. at the church.

The Rev. J. W. Paige and his men's chorus from Madison Heights will conduct the services.

The public is cordially invited.

Mark Alan Krajewski

Krajewski appointed

Mark Alan Krajewski, a 1978 graduate of Appomattox County High School, has received an appointment to the Corps of Cadets, Virginia Military Institute.

He is the son of USMC (retired) Capt. and Mrs. Joseph S. Krajewski, of Concord.

He will begin at VMI August 20. He attended Central Virginia Community College the past two academic years.

CONTINENTAL PRESENTS THE $1.30 FAMILY REUNION.

The cost of getting a family together shouldn't keep a family apart.
Fortunately, long distance rates are still a bargain. In fact, they're low enough to keep you close to every side of your family. No matter how far away they might be.
For example, if you have family in Bakersfield, California and you live in Lewiston, Maine, a three-minute call will cost you no more than $1.30, excluding federal and local taxes.
Those regular rates apply if you dial direct without operator assistance anytime between 8 A.M. and 5 P.M. If you call during one of our bargain calling periods (weekends and week nights after 5 P.M.) you can save up to 60% off our regular rates.
So don't wait until next week, or next month, or next year to have your next family reunion.
Pick up your phone and have it now.
